TRINITY WASHINGTON

LET'S RECAP

TRINITY TIGERS VS. APPRENTICE

On November 6th, 2021, the Trinity Women's Basketball Team faced off against the Apprentice School in their home opener. After a yearlong COVID shutdown, it was evident that the Tigers were hungry to be on the court again. Trinity came out focused and ready to play on both ends of the court. The game was tied after the first quarter, but the Tigers trailed by 9 at halftime. The Tigers refocused at halftime and won the third quarter 25-8. Trinity had an 8-point lead to start the fourth quarter. The Apprentice School came out with pressure in the fourth quarter and kept battling to make a comeback. The Tigers held on and were able to taste victory with a final score of 69-66. The Tigers showed that teamwork and perseverance lead to victory. The crowd gave our Tigers immense motivation as they chanted "DEFENSE" and yelled the "The Trinity Chant".

First-year guard Taryn Yancey finished the game with 27 points in her college debut; and first-year forward Victoria Murdock debuted with 11 rebounds and scored 11 points to finish with a double-double. Diamon Lewis worked the mid-range game and finished with 19 points. This win was a complete team effort as the Tigers finished with 15 assists for the game. The Tigers will be back in action this Saturday at 2:00 PM versus Bryn Mawr.
