NEWSLETTER

Washington, D.C. – Happy New Year, Tigers! As we enter the second week of the Spring semester, let's look ahead to some of the exciting things we have coming up!

TRINITY Lacrosse

Last year, Trinity Athletics reinstated its Lacrosse program for the first time since 2012. Head Coach and Athletic Director, Christa Burgess mentioned the team's excellent camaraderie as one of the highlights from last season. After playing all their games on the road last season, the team is excited to be hosting 7 home games this year. Check out the full 2024 Lacrosse schedule on the Trinity Athletics website!

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY Committee (SAAC)

This semester, Trinity Athletics will be forming its own Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). SAAC comprises a group of student-athletes whose mission is to expand their voice and presence across campus and the community. There will be an interest meeting in the Trinity Center Gymnasium this Wednesday, January 31st from 3:30-4:30 pm. All student-athletes are strongly encouraged to join. There will be snacks, games, fun conversations, and more information regarding the exciting events SAAC has planned!

After a strong Fall 2023 season, Trinity Tennis is ready to hit the courts again this Spring. Known for their tight-knit team atmosphere, Coach Enoch and his players are looking forward to building on the tremendous progress they made last season. Their first match is at home on Saturday, February 24, 2024. Check out the full schedule on the Trinity Athletics website!
