

CURRICULUM VITAE SAMPLE

EMILY WILLIAMS

Washington, DC | (202) 555-5555 | emilywilliams@email.com | Linkedin.com/in/Emily

EDUCATION

Ph.D., History, Trinity Washington University, 2018

Dissertation: "Traveling West: A History of the Railroad, 1850-1900"

Dissertation Advisors: William James (first reader), Tatiana Ayole (second reader)

M.A., History, Trinity Washington University, 2015

Dissertation: "The Golden Spike: The Role of the Railroads in the Industrial Revolution"

Dissertation Advisor: John Murray

B.A., American Studies, Rogers College, 2010

Graduated Summa Cum Laude

HONORS AND AWARDS

Best Dissertation Award, Trinity Washington University, 2018

Received award for best dissertation in the humanities. Three awards are given each year to Ph.D. graduates in humanities, physical sciences, and social & behavioral sciences.

James Doe Award, Trinity Washington University, 2017

Given to the graduate student who earned the highest GPA in their school.

Phi Beta Kappa, Invited Junior Year at Rogers College, 2009

Dean's List, Rogers College, 2007-2010

PUBLICATIONS

"The Role of the Railroad in the Development of Philadelphia, 1840-1860." Journal of American History and Technology. Vol. 71, no. 8 (Spring 2018): 88-101.

"Book Review: Michael Weston's Travels through Philadelphia." Philadelphia History Journal. Vol. 71, no 2 (Fall 2017): 121-123.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Instructor, Trinity Washington University, 2016-2018

- American History, 1865-Present
- History of Technology

Teaching Assistant, Trinity Washington University, 2014-2016

- World History
- Popular Culture in America

Formatted: Alison Doyle. "Curriculum Vitae (CV) Template." The Balance Careers, July 16, 2019.

CURRICULUM VITAE SAMPLE

EMILY WILLIAMS

Washington, DC | (202) 555-5555 | emilywilliams@email.com | Linkedin.com/in/Emily

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

“The Rise of the Easton Railroad Company.” History of America Conference. Philadelphia, PA, 20XX.

“The Railroad in American Literature.” American Railroad History Conference. Trenton, NJ, 20XX.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

President, Trinity Washington University Graduate Student Association, 20XX
Conference Organizer, Graduate History Conference, Trinity Washington University, 20XX

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Co-organizer, Center City Cares, Trinity Washington University Outreach Program, 20XX

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Historians Organization
Organization of American Technology

LANGUAGES

English: Native Language
Spanish: Fluent, Advanced Reading and Writing
Mandarin: Novice Speaker

COMPUTER SKILLS

Microsoft Office, WordPress, Google Analytics, Social Media